

Court File No.:

ONTARIO
SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE

BETWEEN:

Plaintiff

- and -

Defendant

PLAINTIFF'S STATEMENT OF LAW

VOLUME 7
USE OF DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE IN THE OPENING

PART I - OVERVIEW

1. Counsel may use demonstrative evidence in opening. While not a rule, it is nonetheless traditional to request permission of the court before using demonstrative evidence in opening if it is expected to be contentious.
2. Demonstrative evidence, like other evidence referred to in opening, may be used if it is expected to be relevant and admissible, and where it is likely to assist the judge or jury to understand the case.

© 2019, Barbara Legate, Legate & Associates and Taran Virtual Associates Inc.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, except that the purchaser of this publication (who for the purposes of copyright only, shall be deemed to be the individual(s) named on the invoice and/or the CD(s)) shall be entitled to copy, modify and use this publication solely for his or her own legal practice. This publication is designed to provide accurate and authoritative information for use as a precedent by lawyers. This publication is not intended to render legal advice. If legal advice or other expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

* As of the November, 2017 release date, this Statement of Law has been updated by TVA

3. The Court will not disallow demonstrative evidence that is expected to be relevant, admissible, and of assistance to a jury unless the demonstrative evidence is unusually prejudicial.

* END OF SAMPLE ****

The remainder of this statement of law contains written submission on this issue and is written like the law portion of a factum.